Conditions of Membership in the Business Club of London

If my membership in the Business Club of London is accepted:
I agree to be governed by the Articles of the Constitution, the bylaws and conduct of the Business Club of London.
I can visualize the benefits which all members can expect through their association with one another on an executive level and first name basis.
I recognize that I am not buying advertising space by joining the Business Club of London, and that I can only expect to derive a maximum of value from my membership if I make every effort to attend the meetings regularly, agree to serve on committees and take an active interest in the affairs of the Club.
I agree that due to the confidential nature of the exchange of information, business affairs and services offered by the members, both company and personally held membership must be exclusive to this Leads Club; therefore, membership in any other Leads Club will constitute sufficient reason to deny me membership in the Business Club of London.
This application is to be accompanied with a cheque for the amount of the initiation fee of $50.00 as established by the Club and the first three months dues of $211.35 plus HST of $ 27.48 Total $ 288.83
I hereby authorize any credit inquiry that the directors of the Business Club of London may authorize as part of the inquiry into my application for membership.
